Education Committee

Title: AN ACT CONCERNING PUBLIC LIBRARIES.

Statement of Purpose: To eliminate the requirement that the State Library Board submit a biennial report to the legislature, to permit former members of the Advisory Council on Library Planning and Development to serve additional terms, to clarify the responsibilities of the State Librarian and the State Library Board and to bring the guiding statute into compliance with actual practice, to update the public library statutes, to make technical revisions, to clarify the services that a principal public library must provide without cost, to clarify that the State Library's state document depository includes electronic and other intangible format publications as well as traditional printed publications, to change the publication of the official indexed list of Connecticut state publications from quarterly to annually, to clarify that the State Library's municipal document collection includes electronic and other intangible format publications as well as traditional printed publications and to enhance provisions concerning confidentiality of library records.
